Best wishes to those graduating with the class of '58. A wish for a pleasant vacation for all.

If I may, a word of advise--"You're never fully dressed until you wear a smile."

A. M. Janssen
Superintendent of Schools

Now that this school year has ended it is a time that you people should pause and reflect on its accomplishments. For some it has been a rewarding time, gaining new knowledge and friends, for others there has been little or no reward, but the amount received from anything is always proportional to the effort and work put in it.

To you graduating Seniors, I say Good Luck in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Theodore Pitts

Graduates, you were the first students in my teaching career. It has been most gratifying to watch you grow, to meet each new challenge with a new and determined interest. Keep this trait and go onward and upward making a better life for yourself and your fellow man.

To each and everyone of you, I want to wish you the very best in life.

Sincerely,

Robert Warnecke

It can't be in the name alone
For it's quite devoid of tones.
Surely, as some would say,
It must be in the bones.

To love to work and teach and play
And show our youth the way--
Yes, I'd suggest a name
Quite such, per chance, as Joy O'Day.

But fate seems to have another way
Of bringing people out,
It's when they completely forget themselves
To help those 'round about.

For love cannot be hidden
By a sure and firm command,
Nor the twinkle of an eye,
Nor the gesture of a hand.

Let's see now--~~more~~ for thinking
With a ready hand to guide
Some boy or girl who'd stumble
If 'twere not by her side.

I have it!
Surely, you'd think I've been asleep,
It's the soul that never slumbers,
And it's love that never sleeps.

No word seems quite to harmonize
Unless it would be "myth"
Of this I am not writing--
I assure you thith.

With no reluctance and fondest affection
We kid's 'ud like to give a kith
With this dedication
To our own Miss Leone Smith.
